

When the Bible Becomes a Weapon

Mark 2:23-28

- Torah = “Law” BUT also...
- What is the purpose of the Sabbath?
 - Jesus’ question (pulling from 1 Sam. 21:1-6)
- They were worshipping the text instead of...
- The Bible is meant for our flourishing, not a weapon of shame...
- The question isn’t “Do you read the Bible,” but...
- The Bible is an _____, not a _____.

When the Bible Becomes a Weapon

Mark 2:23-28

- Torah = “Law” BUT also...
- What is the purpose of the Sabbath?
 - Jesus’ question (pulling from 1 Sam. 21:1-6)
- They were worshipping the text instead of...
- The Bible is meant for our flourishing, not a weapon of shame...
- The question isn’t “Do you read the Bible,” but...
- The Bible is an _____, not a _____.

When the Bible Becomes a Weapon

Mark 2:23-28

4 Questions:

- What kind of person are you today?
- How is that any different than if you weren't following Jesus? (Or, What kind of person are you today compared to who you used to be?)
- What kind of person is God asking you to become (What is the trajectory of your story?)
- What role might you play in helping this community become the kind of community god is calling us to be together? (Or, How does the trajectory of your story impact those around you?)

-From How We Read the Bible, by Matt Laidlaw, p. 54

When the Bible Becomes a Weapon

Mark 2:23-28

4 Questions:

- What kind of person are you today?
- How is that any different than if you weren't following Jesus? (Or, What kind of person are you today compared to who you used to be?)
- What kind of person is God asking you to become (What is the trajectory of your story?)
- What role might you play in helping this community become the kind of community god is calling us to be together? (Or, How does the trajectory of your story impact those around you?)

-From How We Read the Bible, by Matt Laidlaw, p. 54