

Resources on Revelation

My first encouragement to you is to read/listen to the entire book of Revelation. There's nothing better than reading/listening to the Scripture directly.

While not an exhaustive list, these are some of the resources I've used to help me understand the historical context. The goal, is not information, but transformation; how does knowing this change the way you live daily with Jesus? That is always the key in all of this.

Books:

Unveiling Empire: Reading Revelation Then and Now by Wes Howard-Brook

Reading Revelation Responsibly: Uncivil Worship and Witness: Following the Lamb into New Creation by Michael W. Gorman

NEW (August 14, 2020) The Seven Cities of the Apocalypse and Greco-Asian Culture by Roland H. Worth Jr. (This gem was previously out of print by just put into reprint by Wipf and Stock...INCREDIBLE resource on historical context that you won't find in many places).

The Book of Revelation Made Clear: A User-Friendly Look at the Bible's Most Complicated Book by Douglas Connolly

Christ and the Caesars by Ethelbert Stauffer

Our Father Abraham: Jewish Roots of the Christian Faith: by Marvin Wilson
